

Craig Kyle Hemphill Joins Two-Wins Foundation's Management Team as Outside General Counsel

06 Aug 2009

DALLAS, August 6, 2009—Two-Wins Foundation, a diversified and new millennium organization centralized in Dallas, Texas that seeks to enrich the quality of life within inner-city communities, announced today the addition of Craig Kyle Hemphill, of Craig Kyle Hemphill Law Offices PLLC, as outside General Counsel and Senior Legal Consultant to Two-Wins' management team concerning corporate transactions and operational concerns. Hemphill has represented non-profit and philanthropic entities in transactional and compliance matters relating to operational concerns and administrative functions regarding licensing, leasing, performance, construction, and operating agreements, as well as with formation and compliance formalities concerning 501(c)(3) matters to assure organizational corporate compliance in differentiating between core non-profit affairs and for-profit segments. His role with Two-Wins Foundation will bring his legal sophistication to effectively protect and advance the assets and interests of Two-Wins.

"Having such an experienced and well-respected lawyer as Craig join our team in the capacity of outside General Counsel is a big step in our strategy to expand the growth and philanthropic opportunities at Two-Wins," said Terrance G. Maiden, co-founder of Two-Wins Foundation. "By continuing to reinforce our existing talents in adding Craig to our team and expertise regarding our social and empowerment concerns, we are demonstrating our determination to strengthen our growing reputation as a leading force within the inner-city plight to eradicate inequality and injustice," said Two-Wins' President Tim Maiden.

Hemphill has specific industry knowledge in general corporate matters, regulatory requirements and corporate ethics/compliance concerns in relation to non-profit and philanthropic organizations. His overall transactional experience collectively totals $3.4 Billion in construction agreements, professional service agreements, licensing agreements, finance and purchase agreements, software agreements and securities filings.

Hemphill represents Two-Wins Foundation in the capacity of corporate counsel and legal consultant through his role as managing member of Craig Kyle Hemphill Law Offices PLLC, which services the Dallas and Houston, Texas areas. Prior to his role with CKHLO PLLC, he served international law firms, governmental entities, advised small to multinational corporations, represented companies and individuals in the public and private sectors concerning general corporate matters, regulatory requirements and corporate ethics/compliance issues within the energy, construction and manufacturing industries. Hemphill served as a Federal Law Clerk to the Honorable Kenneth M. Hoyt, United States District Court, Southern District of Texas. He earned a Juris Doctor degree, Magna Cum Laude (Third in Class) from Thurgood Marshall School of Law, Texas Southern University, where he served as the Editor-in-Chief on the Thurgood Marshall Law Review from 1997-1999, earning Highest Honors in Appellate Litigation, Administrative Law, Federal Jurisdiction, Consumer Rights, Trial Simulation, Advanced Criminal Law and Constitutional Law. Hemphill is a graduate of Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, earning a Masters of Divinity in Theology, Cum Laude, focusing on ethics and culture, and he received the 2009 B'nai B'rith Award in Social Ethics for scholarly competence in the field of social ethics and personal commitment to social causes. He also is a graduate of University of Texas at Arlington, where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Economics.

Hemphill holds licenses to appear before the United States Supreme Court, Supreme Court of Texas, Supreme Court of Minnesota, Southern District of Texas and Northern District of Texas.

Hemphill said, "I am very pleased to serve as outside General Counsel to Two-Wins Foundation and to advise its talented management team. I hope to play an active role in the expansion of Two-Wins benevolent and philanthropic mission as it moves from a Texas concern to national and international growth in reputation as a leading force within the inner-city plight to eradicate inequality and injustice."

Two-Wins Foundation is a new millennium organization centralized in Dallas, Texas that seeks to enrich the quality of life within inner-city communities by seeking to strengthen the educational, family, and economic initiatives in creative and sustainable ways. For additional information, visit www.two-wins.org/.